THE AQUEDUCT.—The last span of the aqueduct has been placed in position, and nothing remains now to be done to complete the structure but to lay the flooring and finish caulking, all of which will be completed in ample time to admit the water, as soon as navigation on the Chesapeake and OhioCanal is resumed, which, it is thought, will be about the 20th of next

CATHOLIC BENEFICIAL SOCIETY. - The members of the Catholic Church being prohibited by disciplinary regulations from becoming members of what are usually called secret societies, are thus prevented from uniting in the ordinary beneficial societies of the day. Feeling the importance of providing for mutual relief in sickness and distress, a number of them called a meeting at St. Mary's Hall, last night, to consider the subject, and a very large attendance of the male members of the congregation was the consequence.

The meeting was organized by calling Richard L. Carne to the chair, and appointing Richard M. Latham, Secretary, and a committee, consisting of Norman F. Moore, John T. Hill, Anthony Moran, Wm. F. Carne, and Victor Becker, was appointed to draft a constitution for a mutual benefit society. Rev. Bernard A. Toale being then invited to address the meeting, briefly excused himself, and introduced the Rev. Bernard A. Maguire, President of Geogretown College, who delivered a most beautiful address, urging the members of the congregation to unity and harmony of action, and assuring them of his cordial sympathy.

After a brief conversational discussion, in which Dr. G. S. King, N. F. Moore, W. F. Carne, Dr. T. A. Brennan, A. Moran, V. Becker, H. Jacobs, and others participated, it was decided to organize two societies; one an ordinary beneficial society; the other a Conference of the Society of St. Vincent of Paul, an organization, which, originating in Paris, has spread all over the civilized world, and which has for its object, the relief of the poor and

After a resolution of thanks to Rev. Mr. Maguire, for his eloquent address, to which that gentleman responded in feeling terms, the meeting adjourned until next Sunday evening, at which time the proper authorities of the Society of St. Vincent of Paul, from Washington, have been invited to institute the Conference, and on the following Sunday evening, the beneficial society will be organized.

CHARITY SERMON.-Rev. Bernard A. Maguire, President of the Georgetown College, preached, in St. Mary's Church, yesterday, from the text: "Now there remain faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity." 1st Corinthians XIII, 13. Remarking that he had preached a charity sermon to the same congregation, two years ago, and was fearful of repeating that discourse if he confined himself to the latter part of his text only, he entered upon a definition of faith, what it was not, and what it was. Hope, of which he gave a very eloquent description, naturally he said, followed faith; but both faith and hope were for time; neither would exist in heaven; but charity, the greatest of the heaven-born trio, was eternal, and without it derly conduct in the streets, and yesterday faith and hope were dead. He dwelt on the morning discharged by the Mayor with an adnecessity of good works as the fruits of faith. Catholics he said had been charged with illib erality, because they did not unite in matters of religion with those out of their church; in matters of faith there could be no liberality, for faith was the beiief of what God had revealed, and in this there could be no compromise; but in works of charity Catholies knew no difference of faith; they asked not, when they found distress, whether the sufferer was Catholic, Protestant, Jew or Infidel. The Catholic Church was not a fashionable church; it was the church of the poor, and to relieve them, was its special mission.

A very crowded congregation, including a large number of members of other denominations, listened to the sermon with the deepest attention, and the collection appeared to be an unusually large one.

ALEXANDRIA BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—At a meeting of this association on Saturday night last, the charter obtained from the Circuit Court of this county, was read and accepted, and one hundred and thirty-three additional shares of the capital stock subscribed for, making the total number of shares thus far taken, two hundred and thirty-three, and, according to the provisions of the constitution, leaving only one hundred and sixtyseven shares more to be disposed of within the next six months; but as there is an active demand for the stock, those who desire to subscribe should apply as soon as possible at the office of the Secretary and Treasurer, No. 97 King street.

THE SEASON of gayety and fashion in Washington, is now at its height, and night after night a continual round of parties and receptions of the most brilliant description engage the attention of all who choose to enjoy the fascinating pleasures which Washington society affords. Many entertainments of unusual magnificence have already been given, while cards have been issued for others, equally elegant, to come off during the present week.

BROKE IN. - A couple of youths, from Georgetown, yesterday afternoon attempted to skate across the Potomac, just below the aqueduct bridge, to the Virginia shore. After proceding about one third across, the ice gave way, and the boys were immersed in the water. Several persons went to their rescue, and saved them.

WATER LET OUT .- On Saturday night the water was withdrawn from the Georgetown level of the canal for the purpose of cleaning out the bed of the canal, preparatory to the eight inches in thickness. After the bed of the canal is cleaned water will be let in.

THE TRIAL OF JOHNSON FOR KILLING SMOOT-A CQUITTAL .- In the Washington Criminal Court on Saturday, the trial of Henry Johnson, indicted for the murder of Thos. S. Smoot, was resumed, and, after the conclusion of the testimony, and the opening argument of the counsel for the prostcution, the defence declined to argue the case, which was submitted to the jury, who returned a verdict of not guilty, after an absence of two hours. The only question with the ju y was whether to bring in a verdict of guilty of manslaughter or to acquit, for the judge had stricken out the question of murder before the case was given

NARROW ESCAPE. -- On Saturday morning last, eight young men from this place and Washington, employees in the quartermaster's department, at Fort Washington, desiring to return home, undertook to cross the river, opposite the Fort, but when near the Virginia shore, the ice broke under them, and all were plunged into the water, and with great difficulty succeeded in saving themselves, all being more or less cut and bruised on the hands and bodies by the ice. On reaching the shore the party were kindly cared for by Mrs. Hunter, to whom they are very much indebted. During the afternoon they reached their homes.

ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY COMPANY. - The annual meeting of the stockholders of this company is to be held to-night at the room of the Christian Association, and all who are interested are invited to attend, as it is contemplated to make the library what it once was-a pride and ornament of the city.

Sour House.-Since our last report Col. Lee has donated 900 pounds of beef. We are requested by the Superintendent to state that unless there is speedy relief, the soup house will have to be closed, as the means on hand are only sufficient to keep it open two days

ELOQUENT SERMON.-Rev. Mr. Munsey preached last night in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to a large congregation, one of the most brilliant sermons, it is said, he ever delivered. A number of visitors from Washington attended.

YESTERDAY.-The weather yesterday was mild, and in the evening the sun shown forth brightly. The various places of public worship were well attended, and excellent discourses were delivered by the officiating min-

HURT THE CAUSE.—It is universally admitted that the letter of the "Secretary of the Alexandria, Washington and Georgetown Railroad Company" to Senator Sumner, on the late railroad affair, has hurt the cause.

THE WEATHER continues wintry, and snow fell this morning. The Potomac, however, is opening-the ice breaking up, and commencing

WILD FOWLS .- Quite a large number of wild fowls-red necks, and shufflers, have been killed on the river, in this neighborhood, in the last three or four days. POLICE REPORT-MAYOR'S OFFICE -Robt Henderson, colored, was locked up in the watch house on Saturday night, for noisy and disor monition. Bridget Dolghan, for obscene and abusive language towards Ann Griffin, was fined, and bound over to keep the peace for six months. John Brutus, for using abusive language towards Charles Richards, both colored, was fined and discharged. MAGISTRATES' OFFICE. - Mattie True was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Beach, at the instance of Ann Davis, for threatening to cut her with a knife, but upon an examination, the facts not bearing out the assertion, the case was dismissed.

THERE WILL be a special meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company this evening the wants of the poor and preach the gospel to at 71 o'clock. The punctual attendance of every member is requested, as business of im- G. W. D. Ramsay. portance will be transacted.
